

OPPORTUNITIES...

The California federation of Women's Clubs takes pride in its community service projects. We are proud of our efforts to enhance the leadership, tutoring and mentoring skills of our volunteers, members of the community and especially today's youth.

Through seminars, conferences, forums and leadership training, we can make a difference in the way people cope in their day to day lives, and in our ever changing complex world.

GOALS

- ♥ Building leaders.
- ♥ Training Volunteers.
- ♥ Providing service to those in need.
- ♥ Making a difference through active advocacy in legislation.
- ♥ Encouraging enrichment programs to benefit members.
- ♥ Creating opportunities to live the volunteer spirit.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

CFWC is Responsible for:

- ♥ In 1906, endorsed and supported the first Child Labor Law enacted in California
- ♥ Starting public libraries throughout the State.
- ♥ Starting the white line down the center of the roads that divided traffic, saving thousands of lives.
- ♥ Installing mission bells along the El Camino Real.
- ♥ Proposed a bill to establish a Juvenile Court in California. Clubs paid the salaries of probation officers until funds could be budgeted by the State.
- ♥ Donating over $1.3 million books and educational materials to public and school libraries.
- ♥ Creating window stickers which were adopted by fire departments that show the location of disabled persons in homes and other buildings. And...

Many more community achievements over our 120 years.
